

What chance have I got? Friends among my people I have none, as I never did mix with them, relatives? I can not go they are against me ever since I have married my wife work? I am with out and will have a hard time to find, because I am looking, and feeling run down. Mrs Norton the land lady, waiting for her rent and laundry bills about $180 all the getter, (She knows me as a Gentleman, and does not know what position I am in that is the reason she trusts me) and eating once a day what chance have I got? Will I have refuse - easy money for breaking the law, and help to brake someone home, for that, Society refuse to help me to make a honest living, but they can not force me to do the wrong, nor will they force me to steal because I have'nt nothing to eat, I rather starve to death than do that, and to take a honest mans way, a easy'nt way, what would they say? Or coward, ~~as~~ what other chance is there
